PROFESSOR Baldwin's Butterfly Company 17th Jan., and may be expected here gave another of their entertainments in the Theatre Royal last night. There was again a large audience who seemed delighted with the whole performance. Miss Delroy sang and danced as charmingly as ever, Miss Constance was encored for her clever skipping rope dancing, Mc Bell was inimitably funny with his negro witticiems, and Mrs Baldwin's photograph impersonations were even more successful than on the opening night. The same remark applies with equal force to her clairvoyancy. She gave questions and answers with more clearness and rapidity than on Thursday evening ; generully to the satisfaction of the audience. Professor Baldwin varied his spiritualistic business, making it even more interesting and certainly more mysterious than before. The next performance by the Company will be on Monday evening, when an entire change of programme is promised.

FRAGRANT WATERS' MURMUR that it is now believed, in the absence of contrary advices, Sir Francis Fleming will return to the Colony to resume his duties as C donial Secretary. That, under present conditions, his return will be a decided gain to the administration, as his tact is generally admitted and his experience can be denominated at least a known quantity. That, as usual, many officials will be granted leave in the spring, and numerous changes will be made. That the Colonial Treasurer goes Home for a for months, and Commander Hastings is spoken of as his locum tenens. That the gallant Commander seems to be ro. garded as open for and equal to any work that presents itself, from the superintendency of the Water Police to the command of the Channel Fleet. That it seems almost unfair for the Colonial Office to leave an official like Mr Hastings picking up the crumbs in this fashion.

That the system on which appointments are made at the Colunial Office is far from faulless, and it often entails hardship on those appointed as well as useless expense upon the Colonies. that one instance looks like a case in point viz, the appointment of an outsider to the Governorship of the Gaol, Instead of an officer who knows something of the Chinese oriminal.

That I have never been in favour of fined. ing the Departments with inexperienced cadels, but at the same time a knowledge of Chinese and their language is surely one of the prime necessities for the proper regulation of a prison filled by

That this tendency of the Colonia Office to provide for pressing applicants at Home, or to listen to those in the Service who claim consideration on the ground of seniority irrespective of specia qualifications, has done much to lessen the efficiency of administration in our Crown Colonies.

That the officer now goting here as Surveyor General appears to be manfully attacking the legacy of arrests left to alm. and am told on all aides that work is now dose heartily, promptly and thoroughly by every member of the P. if the water itself hasn't.

That the experts now assure us, there's nothing like chalk, or lime; and, after the manner of the professional henvile, they tell us that we must mix the water with a certain amount of lime, and thereby assimilate the needed chalk.

This it is comforting to know from Mr Humphreys that the water (plus lime) is all right.

That the Director of the Observatory states in a rainfail report-Bain is a very variable and uncertain element, and no brecast for any season can be made in idvance.'

there was little cessation of business on the day of Prince Albert Victor's funeral. That the Funeral Parade was short but imable to call a muster for the Parade, as the Citizen Soldiers are busy men, and, like Martha, are 'troubled about many That it was an unusual military display for Hongkong, to have two entire battalions on the ground; besides all the other branches which, by the way, are now fairly represented.

That the gallant Argyll and Sutherlands then made their last public display here and a fine body of men they looked.

That their Colonel was unfortunately not in command, being then on the sick list, though he is now almost himself again. That, as their Parson told the Corps the other day, Hongkong will not forget the kilted lads wherever they may go.

That I have heard of a fee being charged by Government for measuring lighters in addition to the tax placed on these barges, and perhaps you can tell under what clause this power is given. That the Legislative Council meets Monday, when the new Governor practically begins his presidency. That the Cricket team from the North will have to satisfy our local sports for the nonce, the troubles in Pahang doubtless preventing the Straits batamen from coming North at present. That the clairvoyante, I see, has already. settled the match and beaten the Shanghai cricketers by anticipation, but there is a possibility of the prophecy being reversed all the same.

THE LATE PRINCE ALBERT

A correspondent of the N.C. Design News writes :- The character of Prince Al bert Victor, who has least so sally taken away, was one likely to be so little known that some comments made sipor him by an officer of the Tenth Hussars may be of iagreat to the general reader. To begin said ho, the Prince is a thorough gendeman from the prown of his load to the tip of his toes. It is nothing to say of him ie could not do an ungentlement sotion orsay an ungentlemsaly word, for he could not think an ungentlemanty thought even if he ried. His one desire is always to do the right thing, and no one is more pleased than he when he has succeeded sels he nover can come up to his father's standard being physically so wisk. When he joined the Tenth we all thought we had got hold of a mulf of a prince, but we soon second in a regimental etseplechase, for if journey, while the bicyclists went at foll there is one thing the Tenth think they can do better than other people it naturally is to ride. Of course, as everyone knows. 'The Tenth don't dince.' Wenever have danced, and we don't dance nov. But we flatter ourselves we can ride, so when Collars and Cuffs, as people would call him, came in second we began to realise what the departed a fruitful source of 'good stuff he was made of. MAX O'RELL IN AMERICA In his new book on America Max O'Rel tells an amusing snocdote about the American genius for advertising. A day or two after lecturing in Boston be received a letter, to which he thus refer :- 'I made the following remark in my lecture :- " The American is, I believe, on the road to the possession of all that can contribute to the well-being and success of a nation, but he seems to me to have missed the path that leads to real happiness. To live in a whirl is not to live well. The little French shopkeeper who locks his shop door from halfpast 12 to half-past 1, so usnot to be disturbed while he is having his dinner with his wife and family, has come nearer to be happy, than the America who sticks on his door: 'Gone to dimer, shall back in five minutes. You eat too fast, and I understand why your sati-dyspeptic pill makers cover your walls, your forests even, with their advertisements." And named the firm of pill-makers. The letter is from them. MR M'SWAT AS A PROTECTOR. Billiger ! Hark ! listened to a noise she seemed to hear downstairs. . What is it, Lobelia? 'inquired Mr M'Swat, drowsily. Listen. Mr M'swat listened. He, too, thought of his embroidered 'robe-de-nuit," he heard something. I will see what it is, he said, speaking curl-papers, lamp in one hand, and bottle very loudly and moving very leasurely. of camphor in the other. Don't be alarmed, Lobelia. We are well armed. Bosides these two revolvers, he stopped. continued, in a high-pitched voice intended to terrify any quanthorised persons that be necessary, for you to go in front. You might be in the house, I have a heavy Mrs M'Swat sat straight up in bod and cane and a large glass paper-weight. Be calm. Lobelis. He crawled out of bed, collected his arsenal, and the procession moved downstairs in the following order :- Mr M'Swit, 'It sounds like somebody talking, with revolver in each hand, heavy cane under his arm, and paper-weight in pocket stopped and took up a commanding position near the ball rack. Now Lobelie, go shead with the lamp into this room on the left. I will remain M'Swat, ready to erream, with front hairin here to see if anybody rushes out. If anybody does rush out, he exclaimed, glinding his tooth in a maunor horrible to hear. I will put 14 bullets through him, knock him At the landing half-way down Mi M Swat down with this paper-weight, and break 'Lobelia,' he observed, sternly, 'it will every bone in his body with this cant !

have the lamp. I'll protect you.'

Mrs M'Swat went into the room on the the lamp, and with dauntless bravery went left and looked around.... Do you see anything, Lobelia? saked Mrs M'Swat took her place in front as her husband, in a voice of thunder. directed, and the procession moved of No. Billiger. again. At the foot of the stairs Billiger 'Go through the other rooms,' he reared bracing himself firmly against the wall. While Billiger remained in the hall, armed to the teeth, pale with iron resoluexplored all the rooms and came back. Did you ree anything T he demanded. Not a thing, Billiger. Give me the laint! He handed his weapons to Lobelia, took through the rooms himself. "It wasn't anything, Lobelia, he said, with extreme disgust. You didn't hear anything or anybody ! The procession moved up the stairway on he return trip.

' You must try to overcome this timidity of yours, Lobelia, said Mr M Swat, as he out down the lamp and relieved his wife of her load of deadly weapons. If I to send in their Bills of Lading for counterhadn't been here to protect you, he grumblod, crawling back into bed, 'you would have frightened yourself to death.'

PLANETARY INFLUENCE. Mercury and the moon are generally considered to affect the mind and disposition, yet it will be found all the planets influence them for good or ill. Venus especially must be considered in this important matter. Venus is an earthy planet and does not affect the higher qualities, unless Herschelt and Neptune are beneficially configurated with her, when the spiritual and idealistic faculties will greatly influence the earthly life, and her earthy tondoncies will be diverted into the higher ones. Venus is the planet of love; those who have her well aspected have a lovable disposition and tastes for the fine arts. Females having Venus so aspected will have good taste; their choice and combination of colours will be good and tasteful they will be fond of music, singing, and dancing (the latter especially), their dispo-sition being a merry, volatile one; they do not appear to know the value of money, the word thrift being unknown to them .- The Astrologer's Magazine.

HE WAS TOO GOOD FOR THIS WORLD. 'Your Honor,' said a prosecuting attorney in ah Alabama Backwoods Court. ' the pri soner at the bar is charged with killing one of the most exemplary citizens of this county. Andrew D. Boxson, your Honor, was in every respect a model man. He was a beloved member of the church, and was never known to be guilty of an unchristian act. Why, your Honor, he was never known to bet on horses, play poker, drink whisky, or use tobacco. He----'Hold on a minute,' the Judge broke in. 'you say be didn't bet on horses?' 'That's what I say, your Honor.' 'And he didn't play poker? Never was known to play a game,' And he never drank liquor? ' Never drank a drop, your Honor.' And he didn't chew tobacco?' 'Never took a chew in his life.' 'Well, then,' said the Judge, leaning back, with a sigh, 'I don't see what he wanted to live for. There wa'n't anything in life for him, and I don't see why he sin't about as well off dead as alive. Release the prisoner, Mr Sheriff, and call the next case.

IT RECALLS THE BLIZZ RD. In March 1888, the great blizzard in America almost extinguished the city of New York. The like of it was never before seen. The snow completely stopped all local triffic. Not a horse or a wheel could move. All the telegraph lines leading into the city were prostrated, and for two or three days the people of Boston and New York communicated with each other by way of London by means of the Atlantic cables. Thus messages intended for persons three hundred miles distant were sent six thousand miles, crossing the ccen twice.

An incident which recalls this experience to the writer's mind happened a short time ago here in England. Suppose we let the gentleman interested wil his own story. He says: 'I have suffered more or less from indigestion and dyspepsia all my life. I had a bad taste in the mouth, pain after eating, a poor appetite, and sour stomach.
and my mouth constantly filled with a watery fluid. No matter what I ate, however light, it disagreed with me and gave me pain. I had fulness of the chest, and pain at my side, with a miserable low, dull feeling. From time to time I consulted a doctor who gave me medicines, but they did very little good. The doctor said that the coating of my stomach was disordered, and the mucous membrane was inflamed. In 1877 I received a pamphlet from New York telling of a medicine called Mother Medoc .... Seigel's Curative Syrup, and of the extraordinary cures it had effected, so I procured a supply, and after taking the first I Chiteau Lafon Rochet, 111.75 felt hetter, and by the time I had taken | St. Estephe 1883 ... four bottles more, I was completely oured. and have been in good health, as regards Chateau Lamorere, Mouthe indigation, ever since. Having studied the practice of herbs for many years. I was in the habit of treating peohis for erranelas and other complaints, and was frequently consulted by people in Chican Leville, Batton the district so after my remarkable cure. I was so impressed with the merits of Chateau La Lagana 1875 ... 25.25 Syrap, that I produced a large supply of Chateau Calon Segur, St. 1 26,50 the medicine, and recommend is to all who were suffering, and people came from far and near for it. I may mention that on a Sunday my house was bessiged by miners from Coal Pit Heath, and others from a distance. Un every hand I heard nothing but the loudest praise and of the cures it effected, and the fame of this medicine was spread throughout the West of England with no other advertising than one porty telling another of the benefit they and derived from this wonderful medicine. I wish every one to know of this, and if by publishing this statement it will belo others who may be suffering as I was, it will afford me pleasure." The letter from which the foregoing is an extract is signed Moses Godwin, Old Sodbury (Sodbury), Glos, and is dated

Saigel's Syrap is universally known to be in London, by a strange chance Mr Godwin's first information concerning it come from America, three thousand miles away, which recalls the incident of the American blizzard above narrated, and also shows that the feme and usefulness of this medicine extends to all civilised countries. Mr Benjamin Edgerton, grocer and proplace dealer, Plat Lane, Whixell, Whitchurch, Salop, says: 'While living with Mr Roberts, Fens Wood Farm, I first began to feel a dull heavy weight at my side, and noticed a bad taste in the mouth with foul stomach and uncomfortable feeling after pating. I had no appetite, and when I sat down to the table I could not touch the food. I had a good deal of pain and noise in the head, and could not sleep for it. I was not fit for heavy work, and could only do light jobs about the farm. After cutting a hedge I would go quite faint, and had to sit down, and felt so much depressed I could have cried. Having always been such a strong man I took it hadly to be reduced to such a weak state. I look all kinds of physic and saw a doctor, but his medicine only eased me for a bit, and then I wes worse than before. I went on in this way for over a year, when a servant that came to live at wr Roberts told me of a medicine called Mother from the China Review, contains one of the Seigel's Syrup. She had heard a gentle. best Sketches of Formountlife yet written. man talking about it in the railway carringe, and he praised it so much that included in the pamphlet. I thought I would try it. After I had taken two bottles my food did me good, May be had Price, $1 at Mesers Likes and I gained strength, and by persevering Onawround & Co.'s, and Mesers. Kenny & with the syrop I soon got as strong as Walse, Liverad, Hongkong; also, Mr. N.
